FROM THE PODIUM

When it comes to chocolate resistance is futile.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Dr. Howard Liebgold (aka Dr. Fear) is scheduled to tell us about the emotions associated with "fear". This should be very interesting and entertaining, so bring a friend.

Immediately following today's meeting, the 2009 Holiday Home Tour Committee will meet to discuss lessons learned in 2009, financials and what's coming up in 2010.

UPCOMING INTERCLUBS

Unless Interclub Chair Bob has something up his sleeve, our first interclub of the new year will be the District Council Meeting (DCM) on January 11th. The DCM is held at the Oak Avenue Free Methodist Church in Orangevale. Dinner is $10, is always good, and is served at 5:30PM. Let's give Lt. Governor Karen Borman our support by attending.

Remember when four members attend any of the Kiwanis crab feeds, art and wine festivals, Red and White Ball or other fund raising events on our club calendar, it counts as an interclub. Diane also has some ARCO games that count.

The Mid Year Conference is also ahead of us. Mark down March 6, 2010 on your calendar. An interclub at the Mid-Year Conference is required to achieve a "ROUND ROBIN", so set aside this important date and check out the attached flyer on the "5th Annual Winter Gala North - Shake, Rattle and Roll" event that is associated with the Conference.

IT'S BLOW OUT THE CANDLES TIME
